

Karen McArthur

Karen is a highly experienced NED/Chair, governance and risk professional, recognised for independent oversight and constructive challenge in public interest roles. With a strong background in setting, upholding and enforcing industry standards. Working in both the statutory and voluntary membership environment to enhance consumer protection objectives and build public trust.